

How we collaborate and influence in our work with children and young people

2 September 2017; Greenwood Conference Centre, Greenwood Gate, Irvine, KA11 4GZ

Programme

- 9.30am Arrival and refreshments, 10.00am start
- 10am Welcome and introductions
A welcome from the SSSC and a chance to say hello to others.
- 10.30am Explore your leadership and think about a lollipop moment
Discuss the first time you realised you were demonstrating leadership and take a look at some resources to support you.
- 11.15 am Refreshments
- 11.30am Hearing from others
Maryanne shares the first moment she realised she was demonstrating leadership in her service.
- 11.45am What working together means
Time to explore what genuine collaboration looks like and how we understand and value the perspectives of others.
- 12.30pm Lunch
- 1.15pm Hearing from others
Robert shares his leadership journey as an Early Learning and Childcare practitioner.
- 1.30pm Care Inspectorate
The Care Inspectorate talks about how they support improvements in the early learning and childcare sector.
- 2.15pm North Ayrshire developments: where are we now?
Yvonne Gallacher, Early Learning and Childcare Co-ordinator provides an update on North Ayrshire developments.
- 2.45pm SSSC resources, summing up and evaluation
A chance for you to tell us how you found the day
- 3.00pm Close