

What will you do differently based on today's event?

These are quotes from the evaluations about what people will do differently based on the event.

- Improving my own leadership and being more confident in myself when dealing with nursery staff.
- Communicating more about the child and passing information on.
- Be more positive and confident that I am good at what I do – I do mean something!
- Look at collaborating with childminders.
- Build better relationships with other EYP/professionals.
- Make more effort towards showing a respectful approach, I have a huge respect for childminders and felt saddened they felt undervalued.
- Be much more proactive in approaching and communicating with other services and agencies.
- Focus on my weaker leadership capabilities.
- Look at ways to make formal links from all areas of child life.
- Encourage staff to do their best, recognise their abilities, strengths. Working together with childminders.
- Invite childminders into the establishment to discuss how we can help each other to make it better for the child.
- Talk to childminders more.
- Look at my service to see how I can improve and look upon myself as a good role model.
- Think of the bigger picture – ELC – review practices – think of myself as a leader.
- Look at my role as a childminder in a different light. I don't ever see myself as a leader with any leadership capabilities.
- To communicate with others, build positive relationships.
- Communicating more with nursery staff when dropping children off there.
- Ensure collaboration between myself and childminders is much better.
- Confidently share information about care plans.
- Look at more websites mentioned.

- Speak to childminders and the children in their care – e.g. targets, moods, likes/dislikes.
- Have more confidence in leadership.
- I will treat and think of myself as a leader but also look into working together.
- Have more confidence. Contact Care Inspectorate if and when needed!
- Not be scared or unsure to ask and work with others.
- Try and collaborate more with nurseries and hopefully this will be replicated!
- Make an effort to link up with childminders.
- Try to work more and relay more information between myself and nurseries.
- Communicate better.
- Communicate with other agencies.
